

Group Therapy Wine Launches 2017 Summer Collection Alongside New Website

PRESS RELEASE JUN 14, 2017 10:00 CDT

Group Therapy Wine introduces new summer wine charms, wine bottle stoppers, decorative magnets and more on its new website.

Austin, Texas, June 14, 2017 (Newswire.com) - Group Therapy Wine is proud to announce its 2017 Summer Collection of unique wine charms, bottle stoppers and other fun gifts. The 2017 Summer Collection is designed with a summer state of mind featuring over 20 new products. The new collection includes summer-inspired wine charms, decorative magnets, wine bottle stoppers and key chains.

New product designs include unique wine charms for golfers, surfers, scuba divers, sailing enthusiasts and beach lovers in addition to cork wine bottle stoppers, decorative refrigerator magnets and nautical key chains. "I love the process of taking a simple idea and developing a unique gift or wine charm combination," commented Sarah Perry, founder of Group Therapy Wine. "The new summer collection was exciting to design because it explores all the fun activities that go along with summer. Seeing the excitement when people find the perfect wine accessory matching their hobbies or matching a friend's personality perfectly makes the sometimes-lengthy creative process so much more satisfying," continued Perry.

Group Therapy Wine got its start in 2013 when Perry was asked to lend her artistic experience to her family's wine business. Her unique wine charms and wine accessories were so well received by Texas wine enthusiasts that, in 2014, she opened a store on Etsy to meet the demand. After four years and hundreds of sales resulting in a 5-star ranking, Perry's success has quickly outgrown her Etsy platform and kitchen table.

Group Therapy Wine now offers the largest selection of handcrafted wine charms in Texas. The new
